Mystery Shrouds Gunboats Headed Toward Israel

AIFA, Israel (AP) — A heavy overcast shrouded the eastern Mediterranean today as the five mystery gunboats from France advanced through wind-whipped seas toward Israel's chief port.

Israeli maritime experts said

Icy Conditions To Continue

Motorists are reminded to continue to use extreme caution while driving. County and city work crews are constantly working to clear roadways but remind all vehicle operators that slippery spots exist.

A spokesman for the city reported all state routes clear while side streets are icy. Crews have salted all main thoroughfares and intersections. County roads have been sanded by service men who have worked continuously to keep roads passable.

Predicted rain and possible snow with temperatures near the freezing mark will prolong existing hazards. Driver's warnings are still in effect. Circleville received .51 of an inch of rainfall Monday.

A mid-morning report by Ohio State Highway Patrol dispatcher listed roads icy with secondary and side roads treacherous. Main highways are clear for the most part. Salt trucks are out and all motorists are advised to "drive with caution."

CAUTION exists for pedestrians, also. Many sidewalks are in extremely hazardous condition. Trampled, packed snow is ice coated and cleared areas have a thin layer of ice.

There is a city ordinance on removal of ice and snow directed to "owner, occupant or person having the care of any building or lot of land bordering on any street with sidewalks." Any of the aforementioned are responsible for removal of snow or ice within a specified time or be subject to fine. Unfortunately, the ordinance is not enforced and pedestrians cannot have assurance of safe passage.

Additional rain is forecast for the Roundtown area Wednesday. Temperatures are expected to remain in the mid 30's. Snow and ice, melted in the milder daylight temperatures, will refreeze overnight and create a thin layer of icy surfaces. Watch that first step to the outdoors Wednesday morning. It could be a wow!

Manson Plans To Seek Lawyer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — An attorney says Charles M. Manson now plans to ask for lawyers to help him represent himself when he comes to trial in the Sharon Tate murder case.

Luke McKissack, a lawyer who specializes in criminal law, told newsmen Monday: "Manson never said he wanted to solely represent himself, but he wants a lawyer in his own defense so the jury will get to know him."

McKissack said Manson will ask Superior Court later this week or next Monday to permit McKissack to argue the merits of joint counsel.

Oldest Hancock Resident Succumbs

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Florence Zerkel, 104, Hancock County's oldest resident, died Monday night in her home.

Mrs. Zerkel, who formerly lived in Fostoria and Toledo, was born on Christmas Day, 1865. She is survived by a nephew, Dr. Daniel Corl of Findlay, Superintendent of the Sandusky Conference of the United Methodist Church.

American GI Killed In VC Mortar Attack

SAIGON (AP) — At least one American soldier was killed and several wounded by an enemy mortar attack early today in the first hours of the Viet Cong's New Year's cease-fire, the U.S. Command announced.

Ten South Vietnamese soldiers were wounded in four other Viet Cong rocket and mortar attacks during the first 14 hours of the 72-hour cease-fire, government headquarters announced.

No major ground fighting was reported, but more than a score of enemy soldiers were reported killed and some Americans wounded in small skirmishes (Continued on Page 2)

Find Aussie Not Guilty, Mentally Ill

JERUSALEM (AP) — A special Israeli court ruled today that Denis Michael Rohan was mentally ill when he set fire to the Al Aksah Mosque in Jerusalem and ordered him confined to a hospital for treatment.

Presiding Judge Henry Baker said there was no doubt that the 28-year-old Australian set Islam's third holiest shrine ablaze Aug. 21, but that he acted on an "irresistible impulse" and was not punishable under Israeli law.

Rohan, sitting in the bullet-proof glass booth he occupied during 21 days of testimony and argument, blinked his eyes when he heard the verdict but remained seated.

The three-judge court gave Rohan 45 days to appeal the hospitalization order.

Rohan will be taken to the Talbiyeh mental hospital in Jerusalem. The Jerusalem district psychiatrist said a government psychiatric commission will review his condition from time to time, and if his mental state improves, it could recommend his release.

Rohan admitted setting the fire, but his attorneys denied criminal responsibility because of his mental condition. Psychiatrists testifying for the defense said he was an acute schizophrenic with "paranoid and grandiose delusions."

Roundtown

EIGHTEEN applicants took the Civil Service examination Monday, the second highest turnout local officials can recall. Three prospective firemen and 15 policemen appeared for the test, requiring Chief Robert Temple to hunt up six more card tables for the test. The 40-hour work week recently passed by voters for police may have encouraged the great increase of candidates. If firemen get the raise they are seeking, they may receive equally gratifying results.

KING-size icicles hanging from several downtown buildings are beginning to disappear with the rise in temperature. Yesterday, however, the huge spears of ice posed a threat to passersby and several areas were barricaded.

WE assume that those lists of New Year's resolutions are completed. At the same time we're wondering how many were kept from a year ago when The Herald organized Agonizers Anonymous. In fact we're going to revive the organization, ask for new members and check with those who took the pledge last year to see how many loyal members AA has in its ranks. In order to join, you have to do is take the pledge to quit smoking and notify The Herald so we can print your name in Roundtown after Jan. 1.

Silver Bridge Report Delayed By Investigators

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Transportation Safety Board says a detailed report on the 1967 collapse of the Silver Bridge at Point Pleasant, W.Va., probably will not be ready this month.

It had been reported earlier that Rear Adm. L. M. Thayer of the NTSB intended to deliver the report to a legislative interim committee in Charleston, W.Va., Jan. 12.

A spokesman for the board said he now does not believe the report will be completed this month.

The bridge, which tumbled in to the Ohio River Dec. 15, 1967, with the loss of 46 lives, has been replaced by the Silver Memorial Bridge. The new facility was dedicated and opened Dec. 15 this year.

VERMONT SNOWMOBILE — Toby Reise, 2, and his dog "Ralph" peer out of the window of family car in Warren, Vt., after 45 inches of snow blitzed the area, causing Gov. Deane C. Davis to declare the entire state a disaster area. U.S. Weather Bureau called the snowfall the deepest in history of the state.

Quirks In Tax Reform Bill May Mean Less Take-Home

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Tax Reform Act promises a brighter tomorrow for John Q. Taxpayer, but in fact, he may — and in many cases will — find a smaller paycheck next week.

Quirks in Internal Revenue Service figuring of withholding tables and the resumption of Social Security taxes for everyone earning over $7,800 a year means some withholding amounts will go up instead of down when the new law takes effect New Year's Day.

The largest change is the Social Security levy. The tax is collected on the first $7,800 of a year's income. That point passed in October for people earning $10,000 and in the summer for people with $15,000 yearly salaries.

In many cases, the tax more than outweighs the fact that the new bill cuts the income tax surcharge to 5 per cent from 10 per cent.

The situation will change in July, when the law's provisions raising the personal exemption and the minimum standard deduction first take effect, and the surtax expires entirely.

But the law is so new that IRS hasn't had time to work out the bulky tables it needs to say how much any particular taxpayer will take home then.

But an IRS expert did figure the changes in withholding for three average families with yearly income of $5,000, $10,000 and $15,000, paid weekly. In each case he assumed the family consists of a man his non-working wife and their two children and that they take the minimum deduction of $600 each.

Because of "a mathematical quirk" in the complex formulas, IRS said, the man with a $5,000 salary, paid at $96.15 a week (Continued on Page 7)

$21 Billion Cost Increase Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of major weapons systems is running nearly 50 per cent ahead of original estimates and no central agency is keeping track of all arms development information, a congressional study team has been told.

The cost overrun investigation by a joint House-Senate subcommittee chaired by Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., focused today on shipbuilding and the Navy's estimate that the bill could be up to $1.2 billion higher than originally figured.

Gordon Rule, director of Navy procurement control, was called back before the subcommittee on economy to spell out the contractor claims that have been listed as a major part of the additional cost.

Navy officials, who estimate an $800 million to $850 million overrun plus an unspecified potential problem that could add another $350 million, say a major problem comes from claims being filed by shipbuilders against the government for changes ordered by the Navy on 125 ships during the past 13 years.

Teddy Raps NASA Order Of Closure

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — The unexpected decision to close the space agency's new Electronics Research Center has brought criticism of the White House from Massachusetts Republicans and Democrats.

The announcement Monday means the loss of 850 jobs, mostly highly skilled personnel, with an $18 million annual payroll and part of an estimated $25 million in annual contracts parceled out to Massachusetts firms by the NASA center.

Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., said the closing of the Cambridge Center was a "disastrous" decision by President Nixon.

Gov. Francis W. Sargent, a Republican, called the shutdown "a major mistake."

Five days before the announcement of the closure, Sen. Edward W. Brooke, a Republican, told newsmen that his sources in the White House and NASA assured him the center would continue in operation.

State Rep. David E. Harrison, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, said, "it appears as if President Nixon has disregarded Massachusetts since he did so poorly here in 1968 and will not give anything to the citizens of this state."

Dr. Thomas O. Paine, NASA administrator, flew to Boston Monday to tell employees of the decision, and was asked by newsmen if politics entered into the closedown order.

"Absolutely not," he said.

Dead Youth Unidentified

MARSHALL, Mich. (AP) — A young man may lie in an unmarked grave here, unless someone can identify him.

On Dec. 23, a 15-18 year-old youth dressed in dark clothing was struck by a car and fatally injured on I-94 near Marshall. Calhoun County sheriff's deputies said there was no way to identify him.

He was wearing an Army fatigue jacket with tweed pants, a long sleeved navy blue shirt, and cowboy boots. He was 5-foot-7, 130 pounds and had brown eyes and long brown hair.

He has been named "John Cathoun" by the county officials.

They plan a non-denominational funeral if no identification can be made.

President Signs Tax Reform Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon signed today the biggest tax revision bill in a generation, clamping down on many loopholes but also passing out more tax reductions than he had recommended.

But he warned that he will "take the action I consider necessary to present a balanced budget for the next fiscal year."

Still awaiting Nixon's signature was a landmark bill on coal mine safety.

Nixon's tax statement indicated the budget will be tight on expenditures, but was silent as to whether he will also recommend tax increases to make up for the revenue losses occasioned by the bill.

Nixon previously hinted he would sign the massive tax bill, although he made no outright announcement. The measure provides a 15 per cent boost in Social Security payments effective Thursday, a series of income tax reductions over the next three years and the elimination or tightening of a number of tax preferences.

The President had threatened to veto the bill as it passed the Senate originally because he said it provided too much of a revenue loss, but this was cut back by a Senate-House conference committee.

If not signed by midnight Thursday, the bill would be killed by a "pocket veto."

Nixon also had indicated he might veto the coal mine safety bill because of a possible inflationary effect of some of the benefits it would provide.

But word that Nixon would sign the safety bill came Monday as a delegation of miners' widows was visiting the White House. The women, whose husbands died in a mine explosion at Farmington, W. Va., in 1968, went to the executive mansion to plead for Nixon's signature on the bill which would give federal payments to miners disabled by "black lung disease."

The measure also tightens federal mine inspections and sets higher safety standards.

On Monday Nixon signed a stack of bills involving billions of dollars. These included a $4.8 billion housing bill; $2.5 billion for the State, Justice and Commerce departments and federal judiciary; $6.6 billion for the Department of Transportation; $1.56 billion for military construction and the $287 million supplemental appropriation measure which includes a program to make more construction industry jobs available to Negroes.

The action came as Nixon moved to clear his desk of all important business before leaving for California. He plans to stay at his San Clemente home until at least Jan. 5.

Twelve hours later, the 25 tons of cargo worth about $400,000 was broken down into approximately 1,500 individual packages. The job was done by more than 1,000 Anchorage residents, who answered a call from the Red Cross.

The 29-year-old Dallas computer magnate was denied permission last week to fly the supplies and gifts to the POWs after spending three days in Vietnam, Laos, calling on North Vietnamese, Soviet and Pathet Lao officials.

But the Texan, who left Dallas Dec. 21, was told by representatives of Hanoi that if he turned over his cargo to Soviet postal authorities in Moscow by mid-

Rock Meet Disastrous Financially

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — One death, 47 arrests, a power failure, a canceled act and a financial loss in the six-figure class: That was the final tally for the Miami-Hollywood rock festival which ended at midnight Monday.

Allen Wayne Ollis, 20, of Sumter, S.C., died of a fractured skull when he plunged from atop a darkened spotlight tower early Monday.

Broward County Sheriff Ed Stack said his men arrested 47 persons during the three-day concert. Most of those jailed were charged with possession or sale of an illegal drug.

A three-hour power failure Monday forced an emergency call for a generating diesel to supply juice for the amplified guitars and other instruments.

Trumpet player High Masacola was scheduled to appear Sunday night but never showed up. Norman Johnson, festival promoter and owner of the Miami-Hollywood speedway, declined to disclose the amount of his loss, but before the festival opened Johnson said he would have a expense budget of approximately $700,000.

The highest official attendance record was 15,000 persons — at $20 a ticket.

White House Seeks $200 Billion Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House expects to send a skimpy balanced budget to Congress Jan. 27, although administration sources say they still expect government spending will top $200 billion for the first time.

Despite cuts in agency requests and new presidential appeals for further retrenchment, "The question now seems to be," said one informant, "how close to $200 billion we can hold it."

Another official reported Nixon

on's economic command was busy "trying out all sorts of combinations of budget cuts and proposed new taxes" to improve the budget outlook for fiscal 1971, starting next July 1.

A principal aim of the fiscal juggling was hinted by Nixon to reporters last Friday—to make up the $25 billion in revenues which, the President said, was "lost when Congress wrote its own tax reform bill instead of letting administration proposals."

One of the tax proposals under study, a Treasury official said, was the value-added tax. This form of manufacturer's excise tax was briefly considered but passed over by the Eisenhower administration. The idea is known to have intrigued Nixon, but always has met a cold reception in Congress.

It is "just one of many items under consideration," the source said, and no decision on this or other revenue producing measures has been made.

The value-added tax is a flat levy imposed by some European countries on the value which is added to an item at each step of the manufacturing process from raw material to finished goods.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, has often declared his distaste for the levy, saying that most Democrats and many Republicans share his view.

Dr. Arthur F. Burns, ranking aide to Nixon and upcoming chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, reportedly has been pressing for deeper spending cuts than made so far, with the aim—not yet achieved, according to official sources—of squeezing the budget below the $200 billion level.

Burns told the Tax Foundation Dec. 2 "the need for expenditure reform may be even greater than the need for tax reform."

The decisions must be made shortly, if Nixon is to meet the Jan. 27 target date for sending the budget message to Congress.

Filipinos Cheer Veep Agnew At Marcos' Inauguration

MANILA (AP) — Warm applause greeted Vice President Spiro T. Agnew today as he attended the inaugural ceremony of Philippine President Ferdinand E. Marcos.

Tight security accompanied Agnew's arrival for the outdoor ceremony, but as he left after the two-hour inaugural ceremony, the crowd of Filipinos surged around him for a closer look.

Both when he was introduced upon arrival and later when President Marcos saluted him at the start of his inaugural address, the crowd of government officials and Marcos supporters applauded the U.S. vice president.

Afterward he went by motorcade to a hotel conference with Premier Chung Il-kwon of South Korea, beside whom he sat during the inaugural ceremonies.

Williamsport News

By EILEEN EASTERDAY — Phone 986-3481

Another HO HO season is fast drawing to an end and I wonder how many parents are breathing sighs of relief? It is always so much fun when it all begins and such a drag as time goes on. I can hardly wait to get the tree and trimmings up and soon as the packages are unwrapped I am ready to take it all down. Fortunately I have the support of our three, Marc, Becki, and Amy.

Williamsport was never more decorated than this year — I do believe every home in town had some decoration. Without exception the Raymond Kneec home was truly beautiful. We are privileged to live close enough that a look out the kitchen window was like a look into fantasyland itself what with the lights from Don Cook's, Kate Sollars', A. J. Cook's, Albert Jackson's and the Kneec homes. On down the street was Jim Picklesimer's brightly lit home and Dick Cook's pretty lights.

A walk to the front of the house let us see the lovely decorations of Harry and Cora Young and their daughter, Mrs. Anna Cox and her little Sheryl. A neighbor, Mrs. Inez Lingo, even had a Christmas candle burning until she left to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Faye Mellinger and family of Wooster. Another very outstanding decoration was at the Tarbill home in the Wright addition.

Who can deny that for sheer beauty a prize would have to go to Jim and Norma Cochenour? Jim tells me he had seventy-five strings of lights. He surely knew how to use them to best advantage. Their neighbor, Red and Frances Fry, had easily one of the prettiest door decorations.

Other doors we liked quite well were Darrel and Glenna Wiscup's and The Drummer Boy (drawn by Marcia herself) at Bill and Marcia Horch's. By the way, sister Sheryl did get the chicken pox from brother Kenny and at Christmastime, just as I predicted, but to help ease the misery was a visit from grandpa and grandma. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Spence of Arlington, Mass. They left for home Friday but due to weather conditions the plane had to return to Columbus so they had another joyful visit with the grandkiddies. At this writing they have now returned to their home and all is well.

While on the topic of Christmas decorations I would definitely be remiss if I did not mention the huge wreath fashioned of greenery and lights at the Robert and Linda Anderson home, Linda, by the way, is a former little neighbor girl of ours all grown up and married with a family of her own.

Many will remember the Robert Smith family who used to live where Inez Lingo does now. Curtis and Millie Keller didn't disappoint our Amy — they put out the sleigh, Santa and reindeer and practically every night I have to drive her past to see them.

Did everyone see the darling snowmen in the Bud Grady's yard? We figure they represent Bud, Connie and Kris. A large "K" fashioned of greenery and lights can be seen at Harry, Jr. and Loretta Keller's. (I'll bet daughter Lana was excited about Santa this year). Our Becki especially liked the bell wreath on the porch at Francis and Ruth Snyder's.

How about those lights way way up in the treetop at Shorty and Mearl Christopher's? As I said — so many lovely decorations it's difficult to get them all in. One must not forget is Karl and Margaret Morrison's. For years, without fail, they have provided passersby with an outstanding display.

Warren and Norma Wright knew what they were doing when they planted those shrubs near their home. It lends itself beautifully to the Christmas season and the many colored lights. Rose Horch always delights the soul with her rooftop display of Santa and the three little pixies.

Hey, I almost forgot, I am fond of the candles and angels in the windows of the Larry and Cinda Justice home and wouldn't be a bit surprised if Cinda used the pattern in her classroom. The Arthur Wood's and Walter Lewis' had up their decorations and so did the Frances Rutherford's. Stopping by Christmas eve and Christmas day to visit with the Rutherford were their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rutherford and children of Circleville, grandson Ricky Rutherford and his fiancée (grandma couldn't remember the name) of Lancaster and grandson Gene Picklesimer and Miss Ethel Strawser of Circleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Ebenhack of our village and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beavers of Roundtown were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Ebenhack and son Tom. Weekend guests at the Marcus Ebenhacks were Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ebenhack of near Cleveland. They had to come home to share in all that good Christmas candy and cookies that mom makes.

David and Marabel Drummond and daughters Connie, Sandee and Joy Lynne joined her folks, Doynne and Kathleen Bode of Adelphi for dinner. Other guests for the Christmas festivities were Roy and Kathryn (Kathleen's twin) Schooley and Leonard also of Adelphi. Miss Connie Drummond went to Columbus Saturday to spend the weekend with a cousin, Miss Patty Williams.

A. J. and Juanita Cook and Shana Wills were Christmas day guests of his daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Cook and children of Clarksburg. Early Christmas morning Juanita's dad, Harry Keller, Sr. visited with them for awhile.

Spreading the good cheer of the season and the hospitality of their home with a Christmas eve party were Harvey and Margene Looney and son Jamey. Among the guests were Gene and Dorothy Bush (I should say Postmaster Gene), Dave and Sandy Duvall, Big Mike and Ruth McCafferty here from their Scottsdale, Ariz. home for the holidays, Dave and Nancy Snyder and Jack and Juanita Hanson, son Terry and daughter Christy.

I am sure it is a very merry time at Dr. Paul and Irma Fenstermaker's what with son Rick home on leave from the service and daughters Becky and Nancy home from Findlay College and Otterbein, respectively. Rae says she misses them all when they are gone so she should be in her element with all of them home.

Two more of my favorites are home from Marietta College to be with mom, dad and brother Bill — and they are none other than Tom and Andy Hamman here for the holidays with George and Janie Hamman and William Peterson Hamman. Tom was sporting the most delightful Fu Manchu moustache when I saw him just before Christmas but he expressed some doubt as to how long it would remain. (Mom and dad, you know!)

Another of my boys, Don Greenwood, underwent surgery recently at Berger Hospital and at last report was home and doing very well. Brother Ron (we used to call him Ronnie but now he is a big boy) has been holding down the fort and doing all the necessary chores in the running of a farm. With all this, dear old mom, Mary Allee Greenwood found time to be hostess to the Sorosis Club just before Christmas. I'm glad she did because among the many beautiful decorations she had some that her DECA classes were selling and I loved them madly and shot my decorating budget for the next five years.

Santa gifted me with a new typewriter and while the Herald will suffer through all my mistakes and correct them before they are printed in the paper I want you all to know that they have a monumental task before them seeing as how it has been some fifteen or twenty years since I last used a typewriter to any extent.

The many friends of Mrs. Anna Compton will be distressed to learn that she fell in the basement of her home on Dec. 18 and suffered a broken hip. She underwent surgery at Mercy Hospital and at last report I had from her daughter, Mrs. Esther Bartholomew, she was recuperating as well as could be expected. Mrs. Compton, 89, and her husband Ben are long time village residents.

Gathered around the Christmas tree this Sunday for their family dinner at the lovely country home of mom, Mrs. Ulin McGhee, were Mr. and Mrs. Jay Skinner, their children Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Skinner all of Delaware; Mr. and Mrs. Pharo Osborne and two of their sons, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Cameron of Columbus and Mr. Glenn Osborne of Toledo; Mr. and Mrs. George Skinner and their Vic, Val, and Van of near Clarksburg and Mr. John Skinner and son Jeff of near Atlanta. John's spouse Mildred remained at home to administer to the ailing son Scott who was too ill to attend. Quick recovery, Scott! Our family has by different degrees had the "golly-whompers" these past few days.

Another local resident who has been on the "not feeling a bit well" list is Mrs. Justine (Earl) Anderson. She became ill on Christmas Eve and was still feeling poorly Friday.

Former resident, Mrs. Anna Christopher of Oxford was here for the Christmas holiday and spent time with all her children. Son Earl and his Corina of Circleville brought mom here where she visited with son Eugene, his Ina and their Sheree, Vicki, Tammy, Alan and Chuck; son Shorty (Herbert) and his Mearl and their David, daughter Alice and her husband, Harold Gibson. Shorty and Mearl accompanied her home on Sunday.

This kind of weather brings out the icicles and some of the longest in town have to be hanging from the porch of Laura Wolfe's and also at Willard Seymours. How many remember dipping an icicle in sugar and crunching away? Ah! the simple pleasures of that long ago childhood.

Joe and Nellie Wright took a day or so off from their busy routine a while back and journeyed to Marietta to visit good friends, Rev. Norman and Sue Williams and their Andy and Nik. The Williams were formerly with the local United Methodist Church. Most will recall that Nik was born here on Christmas Day. They are now at the Gilman Ave. United Methodist Church. During their stay the Wrights and their hosts drove across the river to the Fenton Glass Works — always a popular tourist attraction. While their parents were gadding around, Judy and Gary stayed with grandparents, Walter and Elsie Wright.

I must comment on the generosity and kind hearts of Becki's paper customers. Several of them contributed greatly to her Christmas happiness with their lovely gifts and kind acts. She surely was one surprised and thrilled young lady. And as the parent of a paper carrier, I, too, was overwhelmed with the kindness extended my daughter. It isn't always the most pleasant task to go out in the weather to deliver the papers but when customers acknowledge the generous and sincere appreciation it adds so much. One customer even enclosed a note saying how in all these months her paper had always been in the door and never wet — several others commented along the same line — so pardon me if I feel quite proud and a bit boastful. I always have said her customers are the greatest and it bears repeating.

Like life itself there seems to be no season that knows respite from sorrow and so it has been this Christmas in Williamsport. Death is ever a difficult time for a family and somehow, if possible, more so at this time of year. To Bob Adrian, who lost his wife a short time ago, we extend our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy.

To the Salyers, whose trailer home was completely destroyed by fire the day before Christmas, we also offer our sincere regrets.

To Juanita Lawson, whose mother passed away Christmas Day, how very sorry we are for your loss. We know how LONDON (AP) — When you are eight or nine you begin to question the mystery of life. "Where do babies come from?" you ask.

Then, one day in school, a voice says: "All the people in the world were made in the way we've told you today, by a man and a woman together. All the people in the world grew first inside their mothers' wombs and then were born."

"And that's where babies come from."

A thousand school children of eight and nine heard and saw this story in previews of new sex education programs produced by the British Broadcasting Corp. and scheduled for general broadcasting later.

The story has been shot down. Is this good?

Dr. Louise Eickhoff, child psychiatrist at Selby Oak Hospital in Birmingham, says: "I have cases to show that children who have been taught by parents without harm broke down as a result of seeing the film 'Birth of a Baby' and television programs."

Dr. Robert Kind, who teaches sex in Leicestershire schools, says: "I personally know of no case where a child has been sent off the rails by sex instruction. Ignorance causes anxiety as well as a good many illegitimate teen-age births. It is the root of many adult sex problems."

Much of the opposition to the programs centers on the credo that sex instruction is a parental responsibility. Proponents argue that parents have failed their job, leading to maladjusted generations.

BBC is putting Great Britain alongside Sweden in primary school sex education and ahead of the United States, where television sex instruction in some areas has called forth protest and threats of picketing and court injunctions.

Msgr. Francis Thompson, Roman Catholic bishop of Motherwell, banned the films in his diocese. Msgr. John A. Murphy, archbishop of Cardiff, Wales, said: "That there are some im-temperatures uniform over the state this morning. Freezing rain at one time last evening threatened most of the state. However, as the night wore on it dwindled to a very light freezing drizzle.

Temperatures around the state ranged from 30 to 34 with the warmest readings as usual being observed in the Ohio River area.

It will be cloudy with occasional light rain gradually becoming mixed with snow from the northwest tonight and Wednesday. Lows tonight in upper 20s and the lower 30s. A little cooler Wednesday.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Warrants are out for eight movie houses in Los Angeles County showing the Swedish film "I Am Curious (Yellow)" and officers have begun confiscating prints of it on the grounds it's obscene.

Sidney A. Cherniss Jr., head of the district attorney's special section on pornography, said Monday the warrants were obtained after law enforcement officers viewed the production and signed affidavits that, in their opinion, it was obscene.

devoted Juanita (Mrs. Chas.) was to her mom.

The lady on the move, Mrs. Viola Myers, has been at it again. She has just returned from a Florida vacation along with her daughter and son-in-law, Evelyn and Jay Kaiser. They had an article about their trip prepared for me but twice I've gone to her home to pick it up and gone she has been. (what do you English majors think of that sentence construction?) When I do track her down I'll give you all the pertinent, and then some, facts.

She isn't the only one I've had a hard time finding at home. If I ever catch them all I should really have the news.

MIAMI (AP) — Poet Allan Ginsberg has filed a federal court suit seeking to force city officials to let him reschedule a poetry reading at Marine Stadium, admitting all comers free.

A Ginsberg reading Dec. 22 was halted when the stadium manager, Manny Costa, objected to a number of four-letter words and drowned out the recitation with loud music on the public address system.

The poet's suit Monday also asked $10,000 damages from Costa.

One Step Taken

Frequently in diplomatic meetings progress is measured not in long strides but in less tangible achievements. Thus it is that the representatives of the United States and the Soviet Union at the preparatory talks on armaments in Helsinki have agreed on a site for the full-fledged talks to begin in the spring.

By compromising on Vienna for the first several months of talks, then moving them back to Helsinki, both the U.S., which wanted Vienna, and the USSR, which preferred Helsinki, are satisfied. It is a small point, but it was the first issue to cause any serious debate between the participants and it could be significant that it was in the spirit of compromise that it was settled.

Also of some significance is the language of the communiqué which announced the settlement of a site for the talks set to begin April 16. It was congenial in a cautious way, referring to both sides now being "able to better understand the views of the other side with respect to the problems under consideration."

One further note of caution is necessary. The ground ahead of the participants in this conference is an uncertain one. Progress, as in the case of a site selection, may come slowly. The talks could extend over a period of years.

That they have gone this far is the point worth noting.

Stage Set For Action

The issues have been joined on the farm problem under discussion for years by the partners of the European Economic Community. At last a clearly defined farm program has been hammered out in the Brussels talks, one which spells out the risks to be assumed by both Britain and the other members of the bloc if Britain should become a member.

It is clear that the British consumer will pay more for his food under the various subsidy plans proposed, and the price-support programs of the community, of course, would be extended to the British farmer.

Britain must decide how substantial these changes will be, and what effect they may have on her exports. The other members of the Common Market, particularly France with its inefficient agriculture, also can now better evaluate Britain's entry and its effect on their trade.

One other point of considerable importance outlined in Brussels involves the Parliament of Europe, up to now little more than an advisory body. Parliament would be empowered to legislate the budgetary allocations of farm monies, with the actual distribution to be made by the EEC executive committee.

These stipulations may or may not be acceptable to Britain as the price of membership.

Caribbean Paradise

That paragon of socialist virtue in the Caribbean is going all out to convince its comrades in self-destruction elsewhere it has learned all there is to learn about removing those terrible capitalist incentives from production and replacing them with unflinching sacrifice for the state.

First, Fidel Castro announced Christmas would be postponed until July because the sugar field workers refused to take time off from the joys of working for the state until the job was done. A few days ago the Cuban saviour came up with a still better idea.

Visting the sugar fields with other Cuban and North Vietnamese officials, Castro proclaimed—in the name of the people—that henceforth "we will assassinate without a thought of any kind" anyone trying to sabotage the sugar crop.

The word "sabotage" covers a wide latitude in Castroland. It is merely the benevolent one's way of providing the incentive needed to produce the record 10-million-ton crop he has called for this year. The workers received the message.

Turkey Trouble Being Solved By Rubber Mats

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Turkeys lay their eggs standing up. Chickens, who are smarter, squat.

The result: 20 to 30 per cent of eggs laid in a given turkey flock are cracked or badly damaged by the fall. Chickens don't have that problem.

Michigan State University poultry experts have designed a shock-absorbing rubber "carpet" to reduce the egg casualties and improve the turkey birth rate.

"The average drop is about 10 inches," Richard I. Divelbiss, MSU's agricultural research editor said Monday. "There's a tremendous loss of money in cracked turkey eggs every year."

Lucas County Jail Shows Improvement
TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A Lucas County grand jury reported some improvement in conditions at the county jail Monday, but urged that plans for a new city and county hall of justice, including a jail, proceed with haste.

Past grand juries have found jail conditions deplorable. The current panel commended Sheriff William Metzger for the jail's cleanliness and menus and reported inmates now show respect for jailers. The jury recommended an exercise area be built for prisoners.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A 6-FOOT-6 restaurant patron left this note on his expensive new hat: "This hat belongs to a champion heavyweight and I'm coming back in five minutes." When he returned, the hat had vanished, and in its place was this penciled explanation: "Your hat was taken by a champion distance runner and I'm not coming back at all. Thank you!"

According to bitter Arnold Auerbach, one of those arty movie houses, that specializes in outrageously erotic features at outrageously exaggerated prices, advertises tickets at three dollars apiece, but jacks them to four as soon as a big enough line forms outside. Then came the night when a sudden shower drenched the art lovers waiting to gain admittance. An usher promptly appeared to announce, "Tickets are now FIVE bucks, friends. The management always raises prices when it rains."

At the Stock Exchange Luncheon Club: "I woke up this morning with a nagging headache." "Goodness, I didn't have the faintest idea you were married!"

At the Burning Tree Clubhouse: "It's not that I really cheat at golf. I play for my health and a low score makes me feel better."

The Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Back in the heady days of last May—when the Dow Jones industrial average was up in the mid-900s—certain voices on Wall Street were advising caution.

Moody's Stock Survey put it this way: "The current prospect argues strongly for investment restraint. The sharp market rally of past weeks is not likely to be extended unless there is meaningful progress toward peace in Vietnam. This still seems to be some time away."

The passage of time is, of course, either the best friend or the worst enemy of prophets. And while Moody's may not be ecstatic about the recent slumps in the Dow Jones average, their springtime pronouncements have at least been blessed with an aura of prescience.

What is the secret of a successful prophet?

"We were very bearish back in May," said a Moody's spokesman. "We didn't think we were coming to a rapid conclusion of the war in Vietnam... so that hope based on the chances for peace in the near future were unrealistic."

Moody's also used research: "We made studies of the past instances of monetary restraints and history showed they had a negative effect on the market... We felt that stocks wouldn't be moving up until credit restraints were eased and that didn't seem likely in the immediate future."

Caution was also evident at Bache & Co., which observed in May that "investor wariness... is conditioned by the fiscal and monetary restraints which might slow the economic advance importantly in the second half."

The economic advance was indeed slowed. Looking back to May, Bache's Monte Gordon said recently that "people were buying in the belief that current policies couldn't bring inflation under control... The market was reacting to inflationary pressure."

The market in May, Gordon said, "was moving on the basis that peace was imminent... This was regarded as a highly favorable development because it would be anti-inflationary."

Peace, of course, was not around the corner.

Eldon A. Grimm, senior vice president of the brokerage firm F. Walston & Co., said that when the market was at its peak last May he was "somewhat worried and cautious because the Federal Reserve Board kept tightening the money policy."

"I was very much against the resulting credit crunch because I recalled what happened in 1966"—the last time that the federal reserve clamped down on the money supply, he said.

Grimm said he expected a slight easing of the restrictive monetary policy with a resulting loosening of credit early in 1970.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor:

I just couldn't resist writing a few lines in reference to one of the nicest Christmas gifts I received Christmas Day.

Around 10:30 a.m. I happened to walk into my living room and I thought I heard a noise outside on the sidewalk, looking out down on to the street, I saw three heads bent over scraping, sweeping and shoveling the ice and snow from the sidewalks in front of my home. Going out side to see who they were, I found three very nice teenage boys (I'll not mention any names, if they read this they will know), working very hard and having a ball cleaning off my walks. They even salted the walks for ice.

Now those boys on Christmas day of all days could have been somewhere else "goofing off" (pardon my phrase) or taking it easy, playing around. Instead they were doing something I think they enjoyed and also giving not only me but two or three other places they went and did the same, one of the nicest Christmas gifts we all received especially from teenagers today.

Speaking for the majority of teenagers and as one who has worked with them in 4-H, they are alright and going in the right direction if we will only try to steer them right and give them a helping hand when needed instead of an unkind word or thought.

Again thanks to the ones who gave me a nice Christmas gift early Christmas morning. Just always keep up the Christmas spirit you had Christmas Day 1969.

A Bid For Peace

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Belfast, Northern Ireland: Prophecy is dangerous, but it begins to look as though the extremist civil rights groups in this beleaguered part of the world have been outflanked. The majority — meaning the Unionist Party, which stands for continued separation from the South — has simply stolen the radicals' civil rights clothes. "One man, one vote" has come to North Ireland and even the eighteen-year-olds have been declared eligible to go to the polls in all future United Kingdom, State and local elections. The civil rights have been granted their wishes, the student radicals can now support their own candidates and even the local Catholic majority in stormy Londonderry, hitherto disfranchised on technicalities, is free at last to choose its own government.

None of this has been exactly secret, for the parliament at Stormont enacted the civil rights program some time ago and the Queen let it become the law. But it was not generally proclaimed to the world (which has continued to think North Ireland is about to dissolve into anarchy) until the Prime Minister, Major James Dawson Chichester-Clark, took a pre-Christmas gathering of the world's press into his confidence.

To be sure, they always had "one man, one vote" in national elections. But in the votes for city councils and the like, only house-holders and their wives who paid the water rates and other municipal fees were allowed the ballot. (This kept a lot of the poorer young people who lived with their parents from voting.) Now that this has been changed, what is the civil rights movement going to do for an issue? How is the volubly radical Bernadette Devlin, the 22-year-old Mid-Ulster representative in the British House of Commons, to make it appear that the local police are Fascist agents of undemocratic regimes? As the majority is now saying, Ulster will soon find out how much of the civil rights movement was for civil rights and how much of it was really for anarchy or revolution.

The reform package, as explained at a luncheon given by the Prime Minister for American visitors, includes other things that would seem to prove that the Unionist Party had moved to the center, leaving the Reverend Ian Paisley, who calls himself the Moderator of the Ulster Free Presbyterian Church, dangling on the Right. Some 1,300 families were burned out of their homes in the Londonderry riots, but a thousand of these families have been rehoused. The Londonderry Development Commission, a neutral body including Catholic Stephen McGonagle, an important trades union official with a record of pragmatic accomplishment has promised 1,300 "units of accommodation" before the end of 1971, and 3,000 by 1972. The job program is ambitious: the "new city" of Craigavon, which is trying to develop the amenities and services (banks, schools, shops and parks) as it progressively provides, both private and public subsidized housing, has already lured the Goodyear Company (1,650 employees) to its still empty spaces. But the notion that mere environmental and economic upgrading can put an end to cultural and religious differences is not accepted by many in the "new" Unionist Party. There has been an Ombudsman on the job for several months, ready to listen to complaints about government services. For the "soul," there is an office of "community relations" and, to combat prejudices in hiring, there is a new discriminatory employment practices committee.

The pessimists say that all of this has come two years too late. In this view the student radicals, led by such as Bernadette Devlin, have sown the wind. "The radicals," says a Derry cynic, "have a solution and all they have to do now is to find a problem for it" — meaning, of course, that the revolutionists (who want an all-Ireland workers' State) will soon drum up issues that transcend both religion and civil rights. But the optimists counter with the observation that the Catholic workers are essentially conservative and that only a few Nationalist fanatics really want an anti-Protestant "anschluss" between South and North Ireland as long as the superior social services provided by subsidies from London guarantee the North a higher standard of living. The optimists think areas with race and tribal problems (South Africa, Rhodesia, Nigeria, Kenya, Cyprus and Middle East) are in far worse shape than an Ulster, where Celt (Scottish) and Celt (Irish) fight an essentially cousinly war and where the religious differences are between Christian (Catholic) and Christian (non-conformist Presbyterian). Cousins, so the optimists hope, are not doomed to hate forever. The problem is to end their suspicions.

It is not for an outsider to pontificate here. All I can say is that, in a few days in Ulster, I've talked to a lot of very reasonable people.

WASHINGTON MEMO

By Congressman
CHALMERS P. WYLIE
15th District of Ohio

I would like to take this opportunity to say I hope that everyone had a very Merry Christmas and that 1970 will be your best year ever. At the same time, I would like to express my appreciation for the space which has been provided so that I might report to you each week through this column. Judging from the many letters coming from you commenting on the column, we know that it has been well received. I like to hear from you because it is through your communications that I know how to best represent you. And, I wish to say, your letters demonstrate a tremendous interest and a high degree of knowledge on the problems facing Congress.

During the wind-up of the 1st Session of the 91st Congress, a bill which ostensibly is designed to lower interest rates, fight inflation, help housing, small business and employment was enacted. The bill grants to the President standby power to authorize controls over extensions of consumer and business credit during times of inflation. Previously, similar authority over credit has been extended only during wartime.

Other provisions of the bill would: (1) authorize the Federal Reserve Board to impose reserve requirements and other controls over commercial paper and Eurodollar borrowings; (2) liberalize mortgage lending restrictions for national banks; (3) and allow federal home loan banks to improve the conventional mortgage market through secondary mortgage operations and provide additional funds to savings and loan associations for housing construction. The amount authorized for home building was in the amount of $4 billion. In addition, the measure would continue the interest ceiling on savings accounts.

The toughest coal mine health and safety bill in history was passed by Congress despite a possible veto because of the cost factor which have heretofore been borne by the various states.

There was no dispute over the main health provision to reduce the level of coal dust in mines or the major safety provision to require installation of equipment which would prevent gas explosions in mines. Another provision will provide compensation to victims of pneumoconiosis, the dreaded "black lung" disease caused by coal dust.

Congress passed a bill to provide for a three year extension of authority under the Public Health Service Act for making formula grants to public health schools. The bill would authorize $7 million for Fiscal 71, $9 million for Fiscal 72 and $12 million for Fiscal 1973.

Another bill was passed in the closing session which will provide a three year extension of authority for matching grants for construction and initial staffing costs of community mental health centers and for specialized services for alcoholism and narcotic addiction. This will aid the Mental Health Center to be constructed at Ohio State University.

A proposal which will increase the availability of guaranteed home loan financing for veterans and permit investments to increase the income of the national service life insurance fund was enacted into law.

During the final hectic and very busy week of sessions, often lasting well into the night, some five departmental appropriations bills and the Tax Reform Bill were enacted into law by Congress. At one point, the Tax Reform Bill became very controversial because of the anticipated net loss of some $9 billion. For this reason, the President threatened to veto the bill which was passed by the Senate. Because of this, changes were made in the Senate-House Conference Committee, which made it a more realistic bill.

The extent of the package reform bill is best illustrated when we consider that some 108 sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 were affected. Another controversial measure which kept Congress in session until Christmas week was the Labor-Health, Education and Welfare Appropriations Bill. The measure was held up because of a controversy between House-Senate Democrats and the President concerning an increase in the appropriation for these departments of some $2 billion by Congress. At this writing, the outcome is still in doubt.

Hatlo's They'll Do It Every Time

Dear Abby: Her Hubby Hasn't Grown Up Yet!

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a husband who loves to tell everybody that he is "growing up with his children."

We have two sons, 10 and 12, and their father is well known among the neighborhood kids as a "good sport." And no wonder! There is absolutely no discipline around this house. Anything goes. Nothing but fun and horseplay!

Our sons have become obnoxious, loud-mouthed, know-it-alls who won't listen to either one of us.

What is the matter with a man who is blind to the fact that his sons do not need another playmate they need a FATHER!

THEIR MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: He hasn't grown up himself! Furthermore, in his eagerness to win the oval of his sons, he is depriving them of a father. All children need a "hand" (sometimes a firm hand, a helping hand—and occasionally the back of one). If your husband continues to cop out as a father, you will have to be the strong one. Pity.

DEAR ABBY: After some of the disgraceful sights I've seen in miniskirts, I never thought I'd live to see the day when I'd complain because skirts were too LONG. But here I am.

Abby, those MAXI coats! They are hideous. What are the fashion designers trying to do to us women, anyway? Do we have to go from one extreme to another? Granted, those short, short skirts way up to here were terrible on most girls over 22. But now they're trying to shove these Grandma Civil War styles down our throats. Please, please, let's get some sort of a protest movement going. Or do you like them?

HATES MAXI LOOK

DEAR HATES: I don't "like" them, but given a choice between the mini and the maxi, I'd take the maxi. And the only "protest" that will ever be effective is the one which affects the designers, wholesalers, and retailers in the pocketbook. If you don't like them, don't buy 'em.

Ethiopian Students Attack Own Embassy In Moscow

Helicopter Saves Youth

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — A passing helicopter pilot plucked 15-year-old John H. Harris from an ice floe in Lake Erie Monday after police and firemen were unable to rescue the Cleveland youth.

Harris had walked out on ice extending 100 feet from the shore at Edgewater Park and was stranded when the ice broke off, drifting 30 feet into open water.

Police and firemen, who brought a snorkel truck to the scene, were unable to help.

Then Robert W. Burkhardt, 47, a construction firm president from Avon Lake, happened by in his helicopter, spotted Harris in trouble, dropped down to the ice floe and took him ashore.

Harris, embarrassed, thanked the assembled police and firemen but told them "You didn't have to go to all the trouble." "I was waiting for the wind to blow me back," he said.

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago a "gay" guy wrote to you asking if he should marry if he could satisfy both parties. You advised him not to. Your advice was NOT taken, and today he (and I) are facing a situation identical to one I just read in your column from "Troubled Out West."

For six years this "gay" guy and I had a romance going. (I am also "gay.") He decided that for "appearances" sake he should marry a young woman he knew as a friend. (He believed, as many homosexuals do, that if he married, all suspicions of homosexuality would disappear.)

My friend's wife had "suspected" the truth about him, but of course he admitted nothing. They've been married for three years, have one child and another on the way. Meanwhile his "gay" relationship with me has never stopped. We see each other at least twice a week.

It is a game of hide and seek. He is not "happy" with his wife, but he feels "safer" married. He also feels a sense of obligation now that he is a "family man." I am not happy without him and I won't give up seeing him.

I have the feeling his wife knows about us but she will never give him up either.

I am writing only to say that if a girl suspects a man is "gay" but marries him anyway hoping to change him, she is in for a big disappointment. Sign me

TROUBLED OUT EAST

DEAR ABBY: When a rude person pushes ahead of me at a checkout line, I say with surprise and softly, "Oh, my dear, I am so sorry, I did not mean to push ahead of you."

It works like a charm. The offender quickly backs away and suddenly becomes so very courteous.

If you print my letter, please use only my initials, and no town. Otherwise you might spoil my act.

Cincy Faces Possibility Of Walkout

CINCINNATI (AP) — The city faces the possibility of a strike Monday morning by a large number of nonuniformed workers who are dissatisfied with 1970 wage proposals.

Stewards and officers of District Council 51 of the Municipal Workers, which represents 1,800 of 3,900 nonuniformed workers, met Monday night and voted to hold a mass meeting Sunday. The men recommended a general membership strike at midnight Sunday, but the meeting will be held for a vote.

A strike would eliminate city waste collections and seriously disrupt water and highway maintenance work. The union staged a three-day strike last year.

Earlier, Al Van Hagen, business agent for the union, said, "It looks like we won't be working after midnight Dec. 31."

Van Hagen says the city is offering "the same raise we already turned down and they won't budge. They won't even agree to another meeting before the end of the year."

He feels that the workers will not get as big a break as the city's police and firemen who were originally offered the same hikes as nonuniformed workers—base rate adjustments and a five per cent wage increase.

Police and firemen, seeking $10,000 maximum pay yearly, have drawn a counter proposal from the city that would bring them about $252 more yearly than the nonuniformed workers. Police and firemen now make $8,807.

PUCO Bans Train Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Public Utilities Commission filed in U. S. District Court Monday for a restraining order against discontinuance of two passenger trains of the Erie-Lackawanna Railway.

The action seeks review of an order by the Interstate Commerce Commission that would allow Erie-Lackawanna to discontinue trains No. 5 and 6.

The trains which the Erie-Lackawanna wants to discontinue are part of a line running from Chicago to the Greater New York area. Ohio cities affected are Youngstown, Warren, Kent, Akron, Ashland, Mansfield, Galion Marion and Lima.

The Ohio commission contends there are jurisdictional questions involved in the Interstate Commerce Commission order which came as the result of a proceeding filed by Erie-Lackawanna last summer.

The commission was joined in the action by the State of New York, the Public Service Commission of New York State, the State of Indiana, the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission, the Illinois Commerce Commission, the City of Chicago and several railroad brotherhoods.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — Dick Cavett returned Monday night for his third go-around on ABC and seems, finally, to be the right man in the right time spot.

The format of his late evening show differs from that of his rivals in that he works alone—no sturdy man Friday to help bridge the awkward moments. He has a series of chairs in a simple set to accommodate the guests.

The main difference is Cavett's quiet and effective way of stimulating bright and vital discussion. In his premiere show there was some standard badinage in the Carson style with comedian-writer Woody Allen. The interesting portion came with the introduction of Metropolitan opera soprano Beverly Sills, who spoke of her family and the familiar generation gap. Miss Sills said she did not particularly want to communicate and that she liked the gap. "I hope it stays. What I don't need is a 20-year-old buddy."

Then came Jacqueline Grennan Wexler, former nun, former president of Webster College and now the new head of New York's Hunter College.

Mrs. Wexler defended the young, spoke of their need for involvement. It was a spirited and lively conversation among intelligent people that shed some light on an over-discussed subject.

The commercial interruptions often broke up good, rolling conversations. But the tone of the 90 minutes has great spontaneity, and if Cavett's mix magic with people holds, the program may produce more insights than anything since before Jack Paar quit the late night battlefield.

NBC launched a pair of fragile barks on its channels Monday in another revision of its troublesome day-time schedule. The first was the "Who, What and Where Show," which after 25 minutes had still not answered the question.

The second, and not to be underestimated, is "Life with Linkletter," in which Art and son Jack have pulled together a potpourri of interviews, oddities and show biz gimmicks in a de-

Union Extends Strike Deadline

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Local 1143 of the Public School Employees Union, seeking a new contract for public schools service employees, has agreed to a two-week extension of its Jan. 5 work stoppage deadline given to the Youngstown Board of Education.

The local president, George M. Phillips, said school officials had requested the delay to give them time for further study. The local's executive board agreed Monday to grant the extension "as long as good faith bargaining continues."

Local 1143 is seeking a new three-year contract immediately, with a wage increase request delayed until July 1 when the moratorium on wage boosts is scheduled to be lifted by the board.

Fireman's Hat Becomes Modern

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The century-old leather fireman's hat with its peaked front and flaring rear brim is being replaced in San Francisco with a visored helmet that looks as if it were intended for a racing driver.

Fire department officials say the new helmets will give better protection en route to fires, at the fires and during civil disturbances.

Made of plastic and multilayered fiberglass, the new helmets have a shield to cover the backs of firemen's necks. They also have straps to keep them from falling off and a liner of shock absorbing cushion foam. The visor can be pulled down in case of rock attack.

Rev. George L. Troutman Enters Retirement Sunday

The Reverend George L. Troutman, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Waldo, Ohio and a native of Circleville will deliver his farewell sermon Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m.

Pastor Troutman, who has completed over 40 years of active ministry, was born in Circleville in 1904 and graduated from Circleville High School in 1922. He is also a graduate of Capital University.

He continued his education at the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus and was ordained into the ministry by his father the late Dr. G. J. Troutman.

Troutman then served 25 years at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Circleville. He also served the Zion Lutheran Church for ten years and he has been at Waldo for five years.

Pastor and Mrs. Troutman, who will reside in Largo, Florida, will be feted with a retirement dinner Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m.

AAUW Hosts College Girls On Sunday

On Sunday afternoon the American Assn. of University Women entertained girls of Pickaway County who are now enrolled at college.

The tea was held in the meeting room of the Pickaway County Historical Museum. Members of the branch who constituted the committee for the affair were Miss Mary Walters, Mrs. Harold Clifton, Mrs. Kenneth Luna and Mrs. Roger May. Mrs. J. L. Chilcote and her membership committee were in charge of distribution of invitations.

The guests were greeted by the president, Mrs. Dale Edwards. Eight colleges were represented by the girls who attended. Branch members mingled with the guests and reminisced during the afternoon.

Miss Vicki Lee Neff Bride Of Patrick Kunke

MRS. PATRICK J. KUNKE

Miss Vicki Lee Neff and Mr. Patrick J. Kunke were united in marriage 7:30 p.m., Dec. 20, in the Hedges Chapel United Methodist Church. Rev. John Glick of Ashville and Rev. Father James Hanley of Columbus performed the double ring ceremony before the altar adorned with red poinsettias.

Mrs. Joseph Peters, organist, presented a program of pre-nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Neff, Route 3 and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kunke, Route 4.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride approached the altar in an empire line floor length gown of anglemist taffeta with pearly Bordonne lace motif accents. Her full mantilla was edged with Bordonne lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums entwined with variegated holly and three red roses.

Mrs. Boyd Barr of Route 4, an aunt of the bride, served as matron of honor. She was attired in a red velvet floor length gown and carried a white maribou muff trimmed with red roses. She wore a silver heart-shaped necklace, a gift of the bride. Bridesmaid, Miss Lana Hunter of Columbus, was dressed identically to the matron of honor.

Best man was Mr. Larry Emmelhainz of Pleasant View. Ushers were Mr. Kevin Kunke, brother of the groom and Mr. Bruce Neff, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Neff selected for her daughter's wedding a blue knit wool dress with red accessories. Mrs. Kunke was attired in a red wool knit dress with black accessories. Red rose buds and holly formed the corsages for both mothers.

A reception in the recreation room of the church immediately followed the ceremony. Hostesses were Mrs. Gerald Clark of Dayton, Mrs. Lehman Stiles and Mrs. John Heffner of Ashville, and Mrs. Mike Binion of Columbus. The room was decorated with red poinsettias.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a grey wool two-piece dress.

The new Mrs. Kunke is a graduate of Teays Valley High School, attended one year at Ohio State University and is presently employed at the Federal Credit Union at Lockbourne Air Force Base.

Mr. Kunke, also a graduate of Teays Valley High School is

Five Points News

By Mrs. Francis Furniss

There were 29 present at the United Methodist Sunday School service followed with Rev. Eddie Lewis filling the pulpit.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the family of Lawrence Reid who passed away unexpectedly Saturday morning.

Mrs. Helen Phillips extended the hospitality of her home to the members of the Five Points Social Hour Club when they met in her home Friday evening for their December meeting. A lovely covered dish supper was enjoyed preceding the meeting. The home was gaily decorated for the holiday season which added greatly to the meeting. The president, Miss Laura Long opened the meeting with Mrs. Herman Porter reading scripture with meditations and prayer from the Upper Room. Roll call was answered by the twelve members present and Mrs. Francis Furniss, secretary read the report of the last meeting. "Thank you" notes were read from Ralph Dennis and Harold Furniss for flowers and cards received while they were in the hospital. Mrs. Clark Dennis, treasurer, gave the financial report and the group voted favorable of increasing the cheer fund. Birthday dues were paid by Francis Furniss, Mrs. Herman Porter, Mr. Clark Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Michel, Mr. Elbee Jones and Helen Phillips and Ralph Dennis. The old officers were retained for the new year. They are president, Laura Long; vice president, Mrs. Elbee Jones; secretary, Mrs. Francis Furniss and treasurer, Mrs. Clark Dennis. For the program Helen Phillips read, "Christmas is More Than Gifts." Laura Long read "The Lost Christmas" and Mrs. Elbee Jones read, "A Gift of Love." Psychologist Praises Commune Children

BOSTON (AP) — Children who don't fight, babies who don't wail, teen-agers who don't cause problems? That's what you find on the communal farms in Israel, says a University of Chicago psychologist, Dr. Bruno Bettelheim.

He told the American Association for the Advancement of Science about the unusual children at its annual meeting Monday. On the communal farms, or kibbutzim, child rearing is a communal activity. Parents place newborn children in the children's quarters on the farm, where they live until 18 years old.

The parents and children visit with each other two hours a day. Children of both sexes sleep in the same room and shower together until they are 14 on some farms, 18 on others.

Yet, Dr. Bettelheim said, there is no sexual promiscuity on the farms, inhabited by about 100,000 Israelis.

The farms have no more than a few hundred members each and all decisions are made by a general assembly of all members. Men and women share equally in the work of the farms.

Ordinary social evils are rooted in selfishness, Bettelheim said, and on these communal farms there is nothing to be selfish about—not even parents—since there is no private property.

Business Briefs

BancOhio Corporation of Columbus announced today a proposed affiliation of Akron National Bank and Trust Company, Derrol R. Johnson, Chairman, and Philip F. Searle, President, of BancOhio, stated that the proposed affiliation, when consummated, would give the corporation its first affiliated bank in Northeastern Ohio's industrial area.

Shareholders of Akron National Bank and Trust Company have been notified that when the proposed plan can be placed in effect, they will be given the opportunity to exchange each share of bank stock owned for 1.4 common shares of BancOhio Corporation. The exchange offer will be made when BancOhio has filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission covering the stock to be exchanged, and the statement is in effect. The plan is subject to approval by appropriate supervisory and regulatory authorities.

Ankrong National Bank and Trust Company, with deposits of over $200 million, is headquartered in the new Akron Center Building, and operates 12 other offices serving the greater Akron area. M. S. Richardson, Chairman of the bank, and Messrs. Johnson and Searle stated that in connection with the affiliation plan, no changes are contemplated in the directors, officers and staff of the bank.

BancOhio Corporation now has 22 affiliated banks in 21 Ohio counties, and had previously announced proposed affiliations of The Logan County Bank, Bellefontaine, and The Community Bank, Napoleon, which are still pending.

The Second National Bank of Circleville is an affiliate of BancOhio Corporation.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lloyd of Logan Elm Village. The occasion celebrated Mr. Lloyd's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Streitenberger and daughters were Christmas Eve guests of his mother, Mrs. Grace Streitenberger in Circleville and Christmas Night guests of his mother, Mrs. Ilo Baker of Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Miley Drummond were hosts at a family Christmas party Christmas Eve. Santa Claus appeared and a general good time was had by all. To add pleasure to the holiday season, Kenneth Drummond called from Pearl Harbor where he has been stationed for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Neff of Mt. Sterling and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tallman Jr. and son Steve were Christmas Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Neff and family.

Servicemen Receive Discharge

A record number of Pickaway County registrants received a discharge from the Armed Forces in December.

The majority of the 14 discharged servicemen completed a tour of duty with the U.S. Army. They are: Kay Adams Jr., Chillicothe; Ronald L. Albright, Route 1; Donald E. Hartley, Tarleton; Carl E. McNeal, Route 1, Orient; Daniel L. Reed, Route 2, Ashville; Jeffrey L. Ankrom, 127 Parkview Ave.; and Lloyd S. McManus, Route 4.

Larry G. Pontius, Kingston, received a discharge from the Coast Guard.

Completing a tour of duty with the U.S. Navy are David E. Valentine, 146 Walnut St.; Clyde A. Campbell, Route 1, Lockbourne; Noel H. Crawford, 471 Half Ave.; Charles F. Cassidy, Ashville, and Gary L. Iles, 720 S. Court St.

Clyde D. Brumfield, Route 2, Williamsport, received a discharge from the Marines.

Auto Mishaps Injure Two

Two persons escaped serious injury Monday in separate accidents occurring on Pickaway County highways.

Charlotte K. Vincent, 22, Lancaster, suffered a facial laceration and leg injury in a head-on crash 7:50 p.m. in Tarleton. A 17-year-old Williamsport girl received a whiplash injury in another accident on Route 22 at about 1:30 p.m. east of Mill Road.

Patricia Williams, 17, was a passenger in an auto driven by Evelyn M. Massie, 35, Route 2, Williamsport. The Massie vehicle was struck in the rear while stopped for a third vehicle making a left turn. Joseph C. Sweeney, 38, Somerset, was cited by the Sheriff's Department for unassured clear distance after striking the Massie vehicle.

Miss Vincent was injured when her car collided head-on with an auto driven by Stewart Dennis, 47, Amanda. The vehicles were approaching a bridge in the village when the mishap occurred.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

"Children belong to the entire community," he said. In school there are no grades and no competition to see who comes out best, he said. "The children help each other and do not push ahead. To push ahead is one of the vilest things in the value system of the kibbutz." This type of rearing, Bettelheim said, has produced youths who do not drop out of school, use drugs, become sexually promiscuous or homosexual, or commit vandalism.

From early in life the children start making a contribution to the communal life of the farm, because they have their own assigned tasks and meet and make democratic decisions.

They also do a great deal for each other without being told, Bettelheim said. For example, the younger children are toilet trained by older children.

On his visits to these farms, Bettelheim said, he never once saw an instance of physical fighting.

The children have no possessions to fight over, since everything is shared, and there are no social distinctions, he pointed out.

SAIGON (AP) — The promise of lasting safety for the Vietnamese peasant and the assurance that the Viet Cong will not return to dominate his life are overriding aims of all allied efforts in Vietnam today.

The defeat of the Viet Cong and the North Vietnamese army seem no longer paramount. Safety in the hamlets and fields, and the promise to maintain it, have swung whole Vietnamese populations away from Viet Cong influence and brought a semblance of normal life to millions.

It is taking a twofold military effort to keep the promise. On the one hand the allied forces are driving the Viet Cong from population centers into remote jungles, mountains and across the borders; with the other hand they are keeping them there.

American commanders say they would do everything that it takes, including fighting big battles, to prevent a comeback.

A survey by these reporters shows that in only a fifth of the 45 provinces do large, mobile Viet Cong forces remain among the population.

The Viet Cong guerrilla units that once constituted the backbone of the insurgency are no longer in fighting shape. Most still exist but are under strength; to avoid destruction they have left their home villages to live in the swamps and jungles.

The Viet Cong's military weakness in the villages came as a surprise to the Americans and Vietnamese who spearheaded the move back into the countryside.

In many areas it is believed the enemy made a major miscalculation.

"They dropped the ball last November. They underestimated our promise to the people to stay," says an American official in the delta. "They assessed our program wrongly. They thought it would just collapse and fizzle out like all other pacification programs."

"Earlier this year Viet Cong strategy was just to clobber American units and kick them around and cause as many American casualties as possible. Then belatedly they had to recognize they could not get back into their places—we had moved in."

North of Hue in Phong Dien district Lt. Col. William A. Steinberg, from King of Prussia, Pa., had his battalion join the local militia to rout guerrillas and the political underground.

"This is the biggest pressure the Viet Cong have ever been under," he says.

"I demand at least one ambush a night from each of our squads. We try to trap him at daytime when he mingles with the people in the fields and villages, when he is trying to buy rice, to deliver a message, mine a road or just visit his family."

By the best available estimates there are 80,000 armed guerrillas and just as many members of the secret government. The guerrillas are being killed over and over again. There are far more dead than alive.

But only one in five of the known active supporters and secret organizers has been eliminated. "We have not crippled the Viet Cong infrastructure by any means," commented a senior American in Saigon.

While down in their effectiveness now, the guerrillas and the secret organizers have much to sustain them.

Even if his family lives in a government village and is happy there, as 30 Viet Cong families do in the Ben Loc coffee plantation village northeast of Saigon, in the end the guerrilla can count on them, count on his mother sneaking him some rice, and his wife giving him shelter and hiding him for a few days of rest.

The presence of the North Vietnamese nearby encourages the Viet Cong and they expect their brothers from the North to aid with replacements and weapons. The North Vietnamese talk about final victory. The

Kurfess Raps Closures

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio House Speaker Charles F. Kurfess R-4 Perryburg said today many schools are being closed when they should be consolidating with other school districts and that the next session of the legislature may take steps to end the closings.

Kurfess said he had been told by some Ohio school superintendents that schools were closed for political reasons rather than because of financial need.

Six Ohio school districts are now closed because of financial need and 10 were closed for short times immediately after the Nov. 4 general election when many school money questions were on local ballots.

All of the schools, however, conducted the mandatory 180 days of classroom study to qualify for state aid during the fiscal year that ended last June.

Kurfess said the legislation might include a proposal to preclude school boards from committing their schools to financial obligations that later require passage of a property tax to bail them out of debt.

In some instances, Kurfess said, teachers have pressured school boards into accepting new higher salary schedules for which there is no money and then go to the public to get it.

Taft Would Debate Democratic Opponent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio announced he would be glad to debate a Democratic opponent in his campaign for the U. S. Senate — after the May 5 primary.

In a telegram to former astronaut and Democratic Senate candidate John Glenn, Taft said he could see no public benefit to a television debate until "each of us is nominated for the Senate by the party of our choice."

guerrillas believe this, however incredulous it may seem on the local scene.

The hard-core guerrillas never surrender.

The Robin Hood myth that once surrounded the Viet Cong has been exploded. Five years ago many people looked upon the Viet Cong as an organization that could make everything possible with superior skills, discipline and dedication. The Viet Cong were omnipresent; it was impossible to escape their influence.

"We used to admire these guys but now they botch everything," says an American in the field. "They plant a mine and blow themselves up. Basically they are amateurs now."

The weapon the Viet Cong still wield efficiently is terror. A hamlet chief sleeping at home is still the highest indicator of successful pacification. This year 4,500 people have been killed by Viet Cong terrorists and assassins; five times as many were kidnapped and maimed.

The real weapon of the future for the Viet Cong could be the complacency that may set in with quietude, as it has so many times before. Now Saigon's forces have a momentum. As long as Americans go along on five-man ambush patrols, and stay awake at night in the watchtowers, the Vietnamese tend to match the effort. When the Americans go home, when the patrols and ambushes become boring routine, any lack of enthusiasm may mean the difference between success and failure.

The underground in many hamlets and districts likely waits for the new day.

In areas where the population has trust in the district and province chiefs, and truly believes in the promise of a secure future, it is possible to take on the underground.

Secret blacklists name the hunted. Some of the most-wanted people are named on posters. Americans in the field report the people are slow in accepting the idea that there is now an all-out effort, possibly the last one undertaken by the Americans in Vietnam.

Official surveys taken in some healthy delta provinces show that the peasants feel the new climate of safety but keep asking "When are the Viet Cong coming back?"

While many people in the provinces are making a giant effort to revive their country the three million inhabitants of Saigon go their own way. The man in the street shows casual indifference. There is really only one question: Will Saigon be attacked again?

They welcome assurances like those given by the American general commanding the city's environs, that the war around Saigon is pretty much over. But the Saigon people seem little interested in helping bring about a similar situation elsewhere.

ACLU Eyes Police Drive

NEW YORK (AP) — An American Civil Liberties Union report says the Black Panthers have been subjected to illegal police harassment and denied constitutional rights, but it found no evidence that any federal conspiracy was involved.

"Across the country law enforcement officials are waging a drive against the black militant organization resulting in serious civil liberties violations," stated the report released Sunday.

The report, based on an ACLU survey of nine metropolitan areas and reports from 18 ACLU affiliates, said the evidence does "not prove a directed national campaign to get the Panthers."

The Panthers have charged that 28 party members have been murdered by police in the last two years as part of what the Panthers allege is a federal conspiracy to exterminate the party.

The ACLU report was prepared for presentation to an independent 28-member commission that is investigating clashes between Panthers and police. The commission is headed by Arthur J. Goldberg, former Supreme Court justice, and Roy Wilkins, NAACP national director.

There was a howl when the Saigon government imposed austerity taxes on basic commodities like gasoline and motorbikes to get money to help rebuild the nation. The present government, like the administrations before it, tends to appease the moods of Saigon, because it is the political base for the whole war effort.

The armed forces that are the government's instrument in the rural breakthrough are undergoing an evolution called Vietnamization.

It will move most of the regular Vietnamese army divisions to the frontier shield that presently separates the population from most of the North Vietnamese divisions and their associated Viet Cong regulars.

Government territorial forces and home guards recruited and serving in their native provinces will protect the countryside inside the shield.

Already the territorial forces are 50 per cent larger than the regular 375,000-man army. An additional force in the recruiting stage will be used as volunteer home guards.

"The last thing the Viet Cong can afford to do is to trade lives with the Home Guard," a U.S. official comments. The Home Guard have lost 2,300 killed this year, he says, and inflicted the same number of kills against the Viet Cong.

Pentagon Wants 19,000

Men For Services In February

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon announced Monday a draft call of 19,000 men in February, a sharp increase over January.

A Pentagon spokesman noted that the higher draft call for February follows four months of low quotas.

The February induction quota fits roughly into Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird's prediction that draft calls for 1970 will total about 225,000 men, a decrease of about 65,000 from 1969.

The February quota, which will send 18,200 men into the Army and 800 in the Marines, compares with 12,500 in January.

Monthly draft calls last year ranged from 22,000 a month to more than 33,000 a month until the fall when President Nixon sharply cut them back, reflecting the growing momentum of the U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam.

The Pentagon stretched out the 29,000-man quota for October over the entire October-November-December period.

Under currently approved plans, the United States will have reduced its Vietnam commitment by more than 108,000 men as of mid-April.

At the same time, the Pentagon has ordered a cutback of more than 260,000 in the over-all strength of the U.S. armed forces, reducing the need for draftees.

Meanwhile, the government has put into effect a new random selection system of drafting young men.

Pacers Top Bucs In Cage Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Indiana Pacers and New Orleans Buccaneers got together Monday night and played like division leaders should.
After 17 ties and 24 lead changes, the Eastern Division Pacers made off with a 94-89 American Basketball Association victory over the Western Division Bucs.
In National Basketball Association action, Atlanta defeated Orleans for good 76-75 when Mel Daniels tipped in a rebound with seven minutes left.
Daniels took scoring honors with 27 points and Roger Brown added 23 for the Pacers. Steve Jones led the Bucs with 24.
The Bucs' Harley Swift tore a ligament in his knee and will be sidelined for 10-12 weeks.
Walt Hazzard's basket and two free throws in the final minute helped Atlanta hold off San Diego, Hazzard, who sat on the bench most of the second half,

Auburn Not Bothered By Houston Home Field Play

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A home field advantage for the Houston Cougars in Wednesday night's Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl game does not bother coach Ralph (Shug) Jordan of the Auburn Tigers.
"I think it is going to be one hell of a ball game," Jordan said. "I think they have a little advantage by playing at home but how much I don't know."
Coach Bill Yeoman's Cougars moved into the Astrodome in 1965 and have compiled a 29-3 record there since the synthetic turf was installed a year later.
Both Auburn and Houston hold

A CASE OF DREAD SCOTT—The Cleveland Browns' Bo Scott is headed for one of the two touchdowns he scored in the Cleveland sweep of Dallas, 38-14, in the Eastern Conference playoff of the NFL as quarterback Bill Nelsen (No. 16) watches after the handoff. Nelsen had a big day, hitting for 18 completions in 27 attempts and 219 yards. The Browns now meet the Minnesota Vikings for the NFL title.

Longhorns bumped off fifth-ranked Ohio University 73-65 Monday night to gain the final berth.
The unexpected victory won't bring the Longhorns into the national rankings but it boosted their record to 5-4 and brought the Bobcats their first defeat in eight games. The Longhorns jumped ahead to stay 26-25 with three minutes to play in the half. The fumbling favorites managed only 32 per cent from the field but Craig Love grabbed 28 rebounds to break the Classic record and lead Ohio to a 55-52 edge on the boards.
Sixth-ranked Tennessee and eighth-ranked Houston were shot down in milder upsets.

Unbeaten but unranked Niagara stunned Tennessee 69-68 in the semifinals of the All College tournament at Oklahoma City. All-American Calvin Murphy scored the winning basket with 13 seconds left to win the Purple Eagles a berth in tonight's championship game against Oklahoma City.
Santa Clara used a tight zone defense to hand No. 8 Houston its first loss in 10 games, 85-63, in the semifinals of the Las Vegas Holiday Classic. It was sweet revenge for the Broncos, since their loss to Houston earlier in the season knocked them out of the national rankings.

Schembechler Worried About Sunny Clime

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Michigan's football team snowballed its way to the Rose Bowl this season but Coach Bo Schembechler is worried that the five-week layoff and the Pasadena sun may have melted away that important momentum.
"You know what this reminds me of?" he asked. "Spring practice."
The Wolverines are finishing up their practice sessions this week before meeting Southern Cal in the 56th Rose Bowl New Year's Day.
Michigan didn't pick up its momentum until the second half of their Minnesota game. To that point the team, with a 3-2 record, trailed the Gophers 9-7. The Wolves came back to win that one 35-9, then rolled to a 35-7 victory over Wisconsin, a 57-0 win over Illinois, and a 51-6 triumph over Iowa before the stunning 24-12 OSU upset.
USC Coach John McKay, meanwhile, doesn't think momentum is very important.
"In a bowl game, in my opinion, conditioning is the important thing," McKay said. "If you have that when the game comes you won't have to worry about momentum."
The Trojans finished the season with a 9-0-1 record but won at least half their games with fourth quarter comebacks.
Both coaches attended a Rose Bowl luncheon Monday, but Bo left early saying he had to go to practice. Only interior line coach Larry Smith was with him, while the others were already at practice.
"All my coaches are here," said McKay. "We're ready and don't have to worry about practice any more."

Penn State, Missouri Set Clash

MIAMI (AP)—The Big Eight Conference can enhance its national reputation even more if Missouri ends second-ranked Penn State's unbeaten string at 29 straight in the Orange Bowl game Thursday night.
A Tiger victory — and Missouri is a three-point favorite — would give the Big Eight three bowl triumphs this season, with the others coming over Southeastern Conference foes.
Colorado defeated Alabama in the Liberty Bowl and Nebraska smashed Georgia in the Sun Bowl.
Missouri also could avenge the league's loss to Penn State in the 1969 Orange Bowl when the Nittany Lions trimmed Kansas 15-14 with a two-point conversion in the final minute.
The Lions are itching for a shot at the national championship in the final Associated Press poll following the bowl games.

way in the second half and remained unbeaten in eight games, while No. 2 UCLA beat Ivy League Princeton, but barely, for the Bruin Classic Championship at Los Angeles. The Bruins won their seventh straight, 76-75, on Sidney Wicks' 12-foot jump shot in the final three seconds.
All-American candidate John Roche scored 31 points and paced No. 3 South Carolina to an 85-62 romp over New Mexico in the semifinals Sugar Bowl Classic at New Orleans. The Gamecocks meet No. 13 Notre Dame for the championship tonight. Notre Dame advanced by beating West Virginia 84-80.
In Greensboro, N.C., No. 4 North Carolina called on sophomores Bill Chamberlain and Steve Previs for the 92-74 winning drive against Harvard in the semifinals of the Carolina Classic. Ninth-ranked Washington, 7-0, shot .656 from the field in the first half, built a 46-27 halftime lead and went on to beat Oregon State 85-65 in the semifinals of the Far West Classic at Portland. The Huskies meet Oregon State, the defending champions, in the title game tonight.

Seventh-ranked New Mexico State and 10th ranked Jacksonville were idle.
In the Second 10. Davidson, No. 11 beat Holy Cross 99-76 in the semifinals of the Charlotte Invitational Tournament in North Carolina; and No. 12 St. Bonaventure overpowered St. Joseph's of Pennsylvania 96-91 in the semifinals of the Eastern College Athletic Conference Holiday Festival Tournament in New York. The Bonnies meet

No. 17 Purdue in tonight's final. Purdue defeated No. 14 Pennsylvania 83-85 in the other semifinal.
Sixteenth-ranked Columbia remained unbeaten by trimming Villanova 76-64 in the semifinals of the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia and plays LaSalle for the championship tonight.
Twentieth-ranked Colorado edged Missouri 75-73 in the semifinals of the Big Eight Tournament at Kansas City and defends its championship against Oklahoma tonight. Southern Cal, No. 19, turned back Temple 68-53 in a semifinal consolation game in the Far West Classic Monday afternoon.
North Carolina State, No. 15, and Marquette, No. 18, were idle on one of college basketball's busiest nights.

Kentucky Remains On Top In Big College Cage Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Kentucky remains on top in the major college basketball rankings, with UCLA, the defending national champions, just a step away.
The Wildcats, who ran their record to 7-0 with a 102-100 squeaker over Notre Dame Saturday night, outpointed UCLA 480-470 in the balloting by sports writers and sports casters on The Associated Press panel.
Kentucky picked up 15 first place votes while UCLA, 6-0 after decisive triumphs over Louisiana State and Georgia Tech last week, got the remaining 10.
Kentucky was the runaway leader a week ago. The Wildcats then outpointed the Bruins 612-548 and received 27 first place votes to UCLA's four.
South Carolina, 6-1 and idle last week, remained in third place with 355 points, with North Carolina, 6-1, a distant fourth with 295. Fifth-ranked Ohio University, No. 6 Tennessee, No. 7 New Mexico State and No. 8 Houston all held on to their positions after victories last week.
Washington, 7-0, edged Southern California 90-86 and advanced from 10th to ninth, replacing Davidson. Davidson dropped to 11th despite a 74-72 victory over unranked Georgia. Jacksonville boosted its record to 8-0 after three victories last week and jumped from 13th to 10th.
Behind Davidson in the second 10 are No. 12 St. Bonaventure 5-0, up from 19th a week ago; No. 13 Notre Dame, down from No. 11 and No. 14 Pennsylvania up from No. 17.
North Carolina State, 8-0, and Columbia, 9-0, joined the rankings in a tie for 15th, followed by Purdue Marquette, Southern Cal and Colorado.
Marquette and Colorado regained berths after dropping out a week ago. Louisville, Illinois and Kansas, 14th, 15th, and 16th a week ago, and Villanova which was 20th, were dropped from the list.
The Top Twenty, with first place votes in parentheses and total points:

1. Kentucky (15)	480
2. UCLA (10)	470
3. South Carolina	355
4. North Carolina	295

Theismann, Street Battle In Cotton Bowl Thursday

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — In the pressure-cooker of the historic 34th Cotton Bowl Classic Thursday, the coolest players on the field will be a Texas Catholic and a Notre Dame Protestant who have the knack of doing the right thing at the right time.

Quarterbacks Joe Theismann of the Fighting Irish and James Street of the No. 1 ranked Longhorns are the names and big time collegiate football is their game.

Theismann, a junior, is described by teammate Tom Gatewood as the type of guy "who doesn't fold in the clutch." Senior Street, who has reeled off 19 straight victories as Texas' starting quarterback, is called by Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian "A winner and a great competitor."

The 20-year-old, 6-foot Theismann didn't get a chance to play in the game because of his slight build and 170-pound weight.

"They really never thought I could play high school (South River, N.J.) ball because I was so frail," Theismann said. "When I selected to go to Notre Dame everybody started saying rosaries in my hometown and I'm not even Catholic."

Theismann calls himself a "mediocre passer. I want to prove to everybody that I can throw the ball."

Gatewood, a split end, said, "He's terrific. He doesn't get harassed and he doesn't get flustered. And he can get the ball away."

Texas coach Darrell Royal said "His statistics speak for themselves. He's a good runner, good thrower and just a good quarterback."

Theismann has a .562 passing completion percentage and had a total offense of 1,909 yards in 308 plays in directing the Irish to an 8-1-1 record and it's first bowl appearance in 45 years.

Parseghian said Street "has immense poise... a real clutch player. He can scramble, breaks tackles and is a better passer than most people think. He makes the big play."

The 5-foot-11, 175-pound Street had his finest hour in Texas' 15-14 victory over Arkansas. He scored on a 43-yard run, dashed across for the two-pointer, and nailed Randy Peschel with a 44-yard pass to set up the winning touchdown.

Mike McCoy Has Shirt Problems

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The problems Mike McCoy, Notre Dame's monstrous defensive tackle, has with opposing linemen are nothing compared with those he encounters when he tries to buy a shirt.

"The first thing the clerk asks me is my neck size," the All American giant from Erie, Pa., said today. "When I say 19½ the guy gulps and almost faints. I have to have my shirts specially made."

Ron Saul, a senior offensive guard from Butler, Pa., was Michigan State's most valuable football player for 1969. He was picked by his teammates to receive the Governor of Michigan Award.

Sight Testing For Drivers?

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—Fred Rice, registrar of the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles, predicted Monday that Ohio will soon join the 32 states that require a sight test for drivers seeking license renewals.

Rice said registrars watch license applicants for sight defects but it still is possible for persons with eye or other physical impairments to get a renewal.

Rice said he believes sight testing should be mandatory. He said it would be expensive because about two million drivers would have to be tested each year.

Frazier And Ellis Ready To Battle

NEW YORK (AP) — "It was a fight that had to be made," said Angelo Dundee, manager of Jimmy Ellis, the World Boxing Association heavyweight champion.

Madison Square Garden knew that a long time ago and after 15 months of trying, the Garden finally got Ellis and Joe Frazier, who is recognized as heavyweight champ in seven states including New York, to agree to a Feb. 16 match to settle the issue once and for all.

Bomb Search Made

BRYAN, Ohio (AP) — Williams County deputies kept some 200 workers from entering the Fifty-Plus-Five Co. plant here Monday while they searched for a bomb. A caller told the sheriff's office a bomb in the plant would go off at 8 a.m. Work resumed at the plant, which makes automobile accessories, after deputies completed a fruitless search.

CIRCLEVILLE HERALD Readers: This INTRODUCTORY OFFER brings you

$400.00-A-MONTH EXTRA CASH

WHENEVER YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL

-Only 25¢ covers your entire family for the first month

- ★ Pays you extra cash at the rate of $400.00 a month for each hospital stay
- ★ Guaranteed Renewable For Life. At last—a hospital plan that guarantees never to cancel your protection no matter how old you get or how many claims you make

- ★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to the doctor or hospital)
- ★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare
- ★ No age limit. No medical examination required
- ★ No salesman will call

ACT NOW—YOUR ENROLLMENT FORM MUST BE MAILED BY MIDNIGHT THURS., JANUARY 8, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years. They are expected to double again in the few years ahead.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in the famous Extra Cash Plan that...

Pays you $400.00-a-month tax-free cash whenever you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have an extra $400.00 cash coming in every month—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital.

Now, National Home enables you to enjoy this protection at once. Your special low rate is just 25¢ for the first month's coverage for your entire family. Then you may continue at National Home's regular low rates.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $400.00-A-MONTH Hospital Plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Spend the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage payments, to replace savings—or any necessary but costly extras not covered fully by usual hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed low-cost Extra-Cash Protection that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

You get your $400.00 per month—TAX-FREE—as long as you are confined in the hospital—even for life. And, when you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, National Health Plan pays out an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. You receive not $400.00, but $800.00 a month. Your spouse receives not $400.00, but $800.00 a month. That's $1,600.00 in all, in cash payments

PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness... beginning the very first day in the hospital—and continuing for life, if necessary!

PAYS $200.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, if you're over 65. And, a full $400.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life!

PAYS $1,600.00-A-MONTH CASH when both husband and wife are hospitalized at the same time for accidental injury for as long as both remain in the hospital—even for life!

PAYS up to $2,000.00 CASH for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight.

PAYS $400-A-MONTH CASH for each pregnancy requiring a hospital stay, when both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits. Coverage begins the very first day in the hospital.

PAYS $400.00-A-MONTH CASH for a Registered Nurse if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more.

65 OR OVER? YOU COLLECT IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE BENEFITS

We have designed this Plan as the important addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. And you will be glad to know the checks will be big ones! In addition to any benefits you may receive from Medicare, National Home pays you $200.00 a month for the first 3 months, and a full $400.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life, if necessary!

to you every month starting the day you go to the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

We can never cancel your Policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you get or how many times you collect from us. Your Policy guarantees that we cannot cancel your protection after you've made a lot of claims, or become old—or for any other reason whatsoever. It's GUARANTEED-RENEWABLE-FOR-LIFE! And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family this Plan (NH10-669)

Pays you $400.00-a-month cash Maternity Benefits!

Ordinary hospital insurance may take care of part of your expenses when you go to the hospital to have a baby. But what policy can you think of that gives you cash to help buy all the things you need for the new baby? Now, if both husband and wife are insured for the entire pregnancy and have added Maternity Benefits, you get extra cash to use any way you want. If a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, 10 days—as long as necessary—you are paid for every day of your confinement at the rate of $400.00 a month.

All these added cash benefits.

Added cash benefit: Up to $2,000.00 cash for accidental loss of limbs or eyesight, when the loss occurs any time within 90 days of the accident. The loss of a limb or eyesight is a terrible thing. Nothing can replace the loss, but a check for $1,000.00 or $2,000.00 brings peace of mind during the period of adjustment.

Added cash benefit: Choose Coverage for Children (with or without Maternity Benefits) and all your dependent, unmarried children from age one month through 18 years will be covered, too! National Home pays at the rate of $240.00 a month, when your youngster is hospitalized... for removal of tonsils, appendix or any other illness or injury. Yes, you will receive $240.00 a month cash, month after month while the child is in the hospital.

We pay your premiums when you are not able.

If you—the person to whom the basic Policy is issued—are hospitalized just 8 weeks or more, all premiums for you and all Covered Members that come due while you are still in the hospital after this period will be paid by National Home. And your protection continues as if you were paying the premiums yourself! Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again PAY ANY PREMIUMS WHILE YOU ARE IN THE HOSPITAL for the total confinement! This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your National Health Plan Policy covers every conceivable kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your Policy... during the first 2 years only.

This last item is a real help if you already have a health problem. If you are sick before you take out this Policy, you will even be covered for that condition after the Policy has been in effect for 2 years. Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you have read about in Reader's Digest, Parents', National Geographic and other leading publications. The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits at the rate of more than one million dollars a month.

Grateful Policyowners write...

"Received your check for $880.00. I appreciate having the money sent directly to me so I could decide how to use it."

NICHOLAS CRIST, Green Bay, Wis.

"It was wonderful to receive your check for $555.00. I'm very pleased. It paid real well."

MRS. BESSIE GEISINGER, Kansas City, Mo.

"Everyone should have your coverage. I know I wouldn't be without it."

WALTER TUCKER, Fayetteville, N.C.

Make your decision carefully.

Think how costly a hospital confinement will be. Imagine paying for those indispensable doctor, surgical and nursing services that are not covered by your present insurance.

Would you be able to afford the quiet and privacy of a private room and a private nurse, should you so desire? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones? Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? Who would pay your bills that keep on coming in at home? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet runaway hospital and medical costs. And no one knows whose turn it will be next.

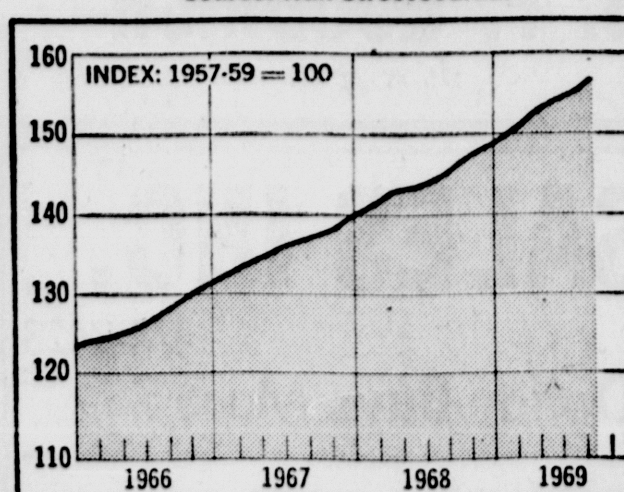

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this Plan—only a few days? Because this is a limited Enrollment Period—and we must receive your Enrollment Form at the same time as all the others in order to pass on to you the savings that come from processing many policies at one time. This highly efficient "mass enrollment" method enables us to give you the broadest coverage at the lowest cost.

We mail you the Policy as soon as we receive your Enrollment Form. When the Policy arrives, examine it in the privacy of your own home. Take all the time you need. It's a very short document, and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover there is NO FINE PRINT. Then—show it, if you wish, to someone you trust. Perhaps your lawyer, accountant or doctor. Better still—show it to your own insurance man... even though he may very well be working for another company! If he is a personal friend, he has your best interests in mind. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere—at any price!

Medical Costs Skyrocketing!

Source: Wall Street Journal

MEDICAL CARE COSTS rose in September to 157.6% of the 1957-59 average from 156.8% a month earlier. These costs are components of the Government consumer price index.

HERE ARE YOUR LOW RATES.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs after the first month to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependents. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue only one policy of this type per person. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Renewal Premium
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $3.95
50-54	only $4.45
55-74	only $4.95
75-79	only $5.95
80 and over	only $6.95

Only $1.90 more covers all your dependents...

from the age of one month through 18 years. And then if you wish, just add 95¢ monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too! Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in the National Health Plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

Act NOW—"Later" May Be Too Late!

Just 25¢ covers you and your family for first month. TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before anything unexpected happens.

THESE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Tell us how National Home's EXTRA CASH HOSPITAL PLAN gives you the protection you need—at amazingly low cost!

- How much will my Policy pay me when I go to the hospital?
$400.00 per month. If you're over 65, you collect on top of any Medicare benefits. $200.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $400.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized afterwards. You collect cash not just for yourself, but for all covered members of your family when they are hospitalized! And you collect cash even if you're in the hospital for only one day!
- When do I collect $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents?
We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if the loss occurs as long as 3 months after the accident.
- What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again?
Don't worry. If you return to the hospital, you again collect $400.00-a-month extra cash for as long as you remain in the hospital. You need only to have resumed full normal activities for just 90 days—then if you are hospitalized for the same illness again, you begin to collect all over again.
- Will you pay me $400.00-a-month cash—even for pregnancy?
Yes! Many health plans don't cover pregnancy. But we do, when Maternity Benefits are added to the basic Plan. You collect for pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay. (Both parents have to be enrolled in this Plan for entire pregnancy period.)
- Do you pay me cash for my children, too? And for any children we may have in the future?
You collect $240.00-a-month cash any time your child goes to the hospital, when Coverage for Children is added to the basic Plan... each time, any dependent, unmarried child (age 1 month through 18 years) is in the hospital for sickness or injury. And if you have a growing family—as soon as your newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered automatically... at no additional cost to you.
- Are there times I might collect as much as $1,600.00 a month?
There are! Remember, we pay cash not just for you, but for every covered member of your family. National Health Plan gives policyowners an EXTRAORDINARY DOUBLE-CASH BENEFIT. If you and your covered spouse are both in an accident and go to the hospital at the same time, you receive $1,600.00-a-month tax-free cash. This amount is paid for as long as both of you remain in the hospital—even for life!
- Am I ever allowed to stop paying premiums during a long stay in the hospital—yet still remain fully covered?
Yes, you are! Should you—the person to whom the basic Policy is issued—be hospitalized for 8 weeks or more, National Health Plan will pay all premiums that come due for you and all covered members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back either.
- How do I go about submitting a claim?
We invite you to contact Cash Benefits Headquarters direct. Whether you want to submit a claim, or just ask us a question, don't hesitate to contact us. As a National Health Plan policyowner, you are entitled to prompt, courteous and direct attention at all times... and you will get it.
- Does this Plan pay in any hospital?
You will be covered in the hospital of your choice except a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.
- Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my Policy cover?
Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your Policy covers everything except conditions caused by: act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and any sickness or injury you had before the Effective Date of your Policy—but even this last "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for only two years. Everything else is definitely covered.
- If I'm hospitalized less than a month—do you still pay benefits?
Yes! We pay you for every day you're in the hospital. There's no "waiting period" before you start collecting.
- What are the requirements to enroll in this Extra Cash Hospital Plan?
You must not have been refused or had cancelled any health, hospital or life insurance due to reasons of health; and, to qualify during this Enrollment Period—you must enroll before midnight of the date shown on the Enrollment Form.
- Besides saving money—are there any other advantages of joining the National Health Plan during this Enrollment Period?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Enrollment Form in the corner of this page. Also, during this Enrollment Period there are no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your Policy!
- How do I enroll?
Fill out the brief Enrollment Form and mail it with just 25¢ for the first month's protection for your entire family. Mail to: National Health Plan, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.

MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

We will send your National Home Policy by mail. Examine it carefully in the privacy of your own home. Show it, if you wish, to your own insurance agent, doctor, lawyer or other trusted adviser. If you decide, for any reason, that you don't want to continue as a member of this Plan, return the Policy within 15 days, and we will promptly refund your money. Meanwhile, you will be fully protected while making your decision!
